

Explore your possibilities

Consider the strategies you have learned in this course for uncovering job opportunities and requirements by using job boards.

For this discussion prompt, respond to the following questions:

Have you visited any job boards this week? If yes, which ones?

What job descriptions have you researched so far?

What have been the 2–3 most common requirements for the roles you have researched?

What concrete steps can you commit to take in the next week to advance your job search?

Which job search strategies are you excited to try?

What do you hope to accomplish by using these job search strategies?
