

How companies use digital marketing to build their brands

Create a digital marketing and e-commerce strategy

Reach customers online

Engage customers through social media and email marketing

Review: Digital marketing and e-commerce strategy

▶

Video: Wrap-up

1 min

📖

Reading: Glossary terms from week 3

20 min

📝

Quiz: Weekly challenge 3

11 questions

Glossary terms from week 3

Terms and definitions from Course 1, Week 3

- Ad extension: A Google Ads feature that shows additional information about the business
- Brand: How a business or organization is perceived by the public
- Brand equity: The value consumers attribute to one brand's offerings when compared with similar products from another brand
- Brand safety: Keeping a brand's reputation safe when they advertise online
- Business goal: A desired aim, achievement, or outcome for a business
- Content marketing: A marketing technique that focuses on creating and distributing valuable content to a specific audience
- Cost per click (CPC): The amount an advertiser pays when someone clicks on a PPC ad
- Customer persona: Represents a group of similar people in a desirable audience
- Display ad: A visual ad format placed on websites or applications
- Earned media: Positive digital exposure generated through personal or public recommendations
- Email marketing: Sending messages to a list of existing subscribers to share information, drive sales, or create community
- Keyword: A search term people use to find information, products, and services online
- Media mix: A combination of digital channels used to reach goals and how the budget is divided among them
- Owned media: All the digital content a brand fully controls
- Paid media: Any form of digital promotion a brand pays to put online
- Pay-per-click (PPC): A type of advertising that allows the advertiser to pay only when someone clicks on an ad link
- Search engine marketing (SEM): Generating traffic to a website through paid ads that appear in search engine results
- Search engine optimization (SEO): The process of increasing the visibility of website pages on search engines to attract more relevant traffic
- Search engine results pages (SERPs): The pages of results a search engine produces when someone performs a search
- Segmentation: Dividing an email subscriber list into smaller groups based on criteria like interests, location, or purchase history

Terms and their definitions from previous module(s)

- A
- Agency: An outside partner that fulfills a company's digital marketing and advertising needs
- Awareness stage: The first stage of the marketing funnel, when a potential customer first becomes aware of the product or service
- B
- Business-to-business (B2B): Refers to when businesses sell products or services to other businesses (when businesses purchase from each other)
- Business-to-consumer (B2C): Refers to when businesses sell products or services to consumers (when consumers purchase from businesses)
- C
- Consumer-to-business (C2B): Refers to when individuals (consumers) sell products or services to businesses (when businesses purchase from consumers)
- Consumer-to-consumer (C2C): Refers to when individuals (consumers) sell products or services to other consumers (when consumers purchase from each other)
- Consideration stage: The second stage of the marketing funnel, when a potential customer's interest builds for a product or service
- Conversion: The completion of an activity that contributes to the success of a business
- Conversion rate: The percentage of users or website visitors who completed a desired action, such as clicking on a link in an email or purchasing a product
- Conversion stage: The third stage of the marketing funnel, when marketers capitalize on the interest people have already shown
- Customer journey: The path customers take from learning about a product, to getting questions answered, to making a purchase
- Customer journey map: A visualization of the touchpoints a typical customer encounters along their purchase journey
- D
- Digital channel: Any communication method or platform a business can use to reach their target audience online
- Digital marketing: The practice of reaching consumers online through digital channels with the aim of turning them into customers
- E
- E-commerce: The buying and selling of goods or services using the internet
- Engagement marketing: (refer to experiential marketing)
- Experiential marketing: The process of encouraging consumers to not only purchase a brand or product, but to experience it
- F
- Frequency: How many times an individual encounters an ad
- I
- Impressions: The total number of times an ad appears on people's screens
- Inclusive marketing: The practice of improving representation and belonging within the marketing and advertising materials that an organization creates
- Influencer marketing: The process of enlisting influential people to endorse or mention a brand or product to their followers on social media
- In-house: Within a single company
- L
- Lead: A potential customer who has interacted with a brand and shared personal information, like an email address
- Local search: A search query that generates local-based search results
- Local SEO: Optimizing content so that it displays in Google's local search algorithms
- Loyalty: The fourth stage of the marketing funnel, when customers become repeat customers and brand advocates
- M
- Marketing funnel: A visual representation of the process through which people go from learning about a brand to becoming loyal customers
- O
- Omnichannel: The integration or synchronization of content on multiple channels
- P
- Pain point: Problems customers want to solve
- R
- Reach: The total number of unique individuals who encounter an ad across their different devices
- S
- Social media marketing: The process of creating content for different social media platforms to drive engagement and promote a business or product
- T
- Target audience: The group of people most likely to purchase a company's products; often defined as the combination of customer personas
- Touchpoint: Any interaction a customer has with a brand during their purchase journey
- Transferable skills: Skills from other areas that can help someone progress in a career in marketing

Mark as completed

