

Reflect on example emails

In the previous self-review activity, you completed an email series.

For this discussion prompt, compare your email series to the three emails in the self-review exemplar.

Write 5–10 sentences addressing the following questions:

How does your email series compare to the exemplar?

Which email was the most challenging to write: the welcome email, the message for the newsletter, or the promotional email?

What could you have done better?

What did you do well?
