

Share portfolio tips

Now that you have created or updated your resume, share any tips you've learned to improve a resume. The tips could be something you learned from a previous video or reading. The tips could also be from your own experience.